

Central School for Tibetans, CVP - Bylakuppe

Central School for Tibetans, Cauvery Valley Project (CVP) at Bylakuppe was established in 1971 by Mysore Rehabilitation and Development Agency (MYRADA) as a primary school. Located about 60 km from Mysore city in Karnataka State, in picturesque and quite surroundings, the school caters to children of settlers residing at Dickyi Larsoe Tibetan Settlement. Later the school was taken over by CTSA, Delhi and made a branch of the main school CST Bylakuppe. In 1986, it was upgraded to middle level and made an independent school. It was further upgraded to secondary school level in 1990 and has classes I to X. The school has on roll 350 students and 32 teaching and non-teaching staff.

The school is affiliated to the Central Board of Secondary Education, Delhi and follows the syllabus prescribed by it. Over the years the school has constantly achieved good academic results in the board examinations achieving 84% results in 2005. Besides laying utmost emphasis on excellence in academics, the school stress equal importance on the all round development of students personality. The school's co-curricular activities calendar comprises games and sports, literary activities, music & dance etc. These activities are conducted inter-house for senior classes and intra-class for primary classes. The school also emphasis the preservation and promotion of Tibetan culture and inculcating positive values among the students through a series of initiatives including inviting eminent speakers and participation in various functions and festivals in the settlement. The school actively participates in various inter school cultural and sports competitions and students have distinguished themselves and brought many laurels to the school. The school has well equipped laboratories for junior science, mathematics, computer and social science along with a well developed resource centre and library.

Being a day school, it maintains a very close rapport with the community. The settlement office and parents representatives are actively involved in the welfare of the school. Mr. Jampa Tenzin is the Principal of the school.
